

SUMMER READING

Book recommendations for the summer

First chapter book for early readers

Grandma Gertie is rather strange. With her big square glasses and a parrot on her hat, Anna and Kasper don't know what to make of her. But Grandma's got a secret... Grandpa Bert is a ghost and he's travelled all the way from Barbados squished inside her handbag! Even worse, they're being followed and Grandpa Bert could be in very grave danger... Can Anna and Kasper help their grandparents before it's too late? A hilarious family adventure filled with ghosts and laughs.

When Sona learns about the climate crisis at school and is very worried that no one is doing enough to combat it, she takes up the challenge herself. But Appa isn't amused when Sona throws out her baby sister's nappies and Thatha isn't happy when she tells him to get rid of his colour-coded plastic files. When Sona learns that many of the kolams – the traditional art that people draw in front of their homes to celebrate the winter months and the festival season – are not organic, she sets out to make some big changes by getting everyone involved.

We all loved James Carter when he visited St Joseph's so why not dip into his latest poetry collection - All aboard for Kalamazoo!

One ticket will let you... ride on an elephant, stay in a bug hotel, travel by train boat and plane, mingle with bears and minibeasts – and even meet an alien! All this and more, in 19 zippy poems to read aloud.

This is a fantastic and eagerly awaited poetry collection for young children, from the author of bestselling 'Zim Zam Zoom!' which was shortlisted for the CLIPPA Award and longlisted for the UKLA Award

The BRAND NEW laugh-out-loud Daisy adventure for readers of 6-9, from bestselling author of the Oi Frog series, Kes Gray.

Here comes trouble! Daisy is off to actual, actual London for the day!!!

Nanny and Grumpy are taking her to see the Tower of London, Buckingham Palace, Big Ben and lots more.

Trouble is, all Daisy really wants to see is Cooley the pigeon . . .What could possibly go wrong?
