

plummeted:

Verb

To fall and drop down a high speed.

Synonyms:

Hurtle, plunge, dive.

“Cucumber definitely can’t fly except this one plummeted from the sky, almost knocking me out .”

chaos:

Noun

Complete disorder and confusion.

Synonyms:

Mayhem, disorder, disarray.

“It was clear by the lack of fire and chaos the dragons were not staying in the garden.”

disgruntled:

Adjective

To feel unhappy about something.

Synonyms:

Fed up, displeased, resentful.

“Flicker flew into the glass several times before giving up and landing in a disgruntled heap.”

billowing:

Adjective

Filled with air and blowing outwards.

Synonyms:

Swelling, rippling, blowing.

“Grim stormed into the garden, his black cloak billowing behind him.”