

Friday 22nd January
Handwriting

Use the sheet on the next page to practise your joined up handwriting.

Top tip: Remember your flicks on the letters

If you can't print the sheet just copy the words onto paper. Ask an adult to draw some lines to help you 😊

READING CHALLENGE

Every Friday, I would like you to try one of these reading challenges. Try and pick a different one each week. Have fun 😊

Read outside	Read while standing on one foot	Read a silly story	Read after dinner	Read a book by your favourite author
Read to an animal (real or stuffed)	Read using a whisper voice	Read upside down	Read in an unusual place	Read to yourself
Read in a book with a blue cover	Read in a place in your house you haven't read before	Read in your pyjamas	Read a book with a torch	Read a new book

Here's me completing one of the reading challenges 😊

It was harder to balance than it looked!

Spelling

Focus Word
disagree dislike disappear discover disapprove

These are your spellings for this week.
Each day, I will give you a new activity to help you to practise 😊
There are only 5 spellings for this week.

Spelling pattern:

This week, we are looking at the prefix 'dis'.

- A prefix is a letter or letters added to the start of a word to change its meaning.
- 'Dis' means 'not' or 'the opposite of'. It will give the word the opposite meaning.

For example:

disagree      This is the opposite of agree. It means that you have a different opinion on something compared to somebody else.
