Lesson 4: Planning a story

In this lesson, you are going to plan your own version of the Black Hat. Work through the next few slides to help you with your planning. Note down some ideas into your book/ paper or print the template at the end of this section.

Remember, a good story is a bit like a mountain.

Introduction:

Who is your main character?

What object do they find?

Where do they find a magical object? (it doesn't have to be a hat)

Problem?

What goes wrong?

What do the creatures do?

How does it make your character feel?

Resolution?

How is the problem resolved?

What happens to the creatures?

Ending?

Where does your story end?

Does your story have a happy ending?

Be as imaginative as you can

Watch the video for some more ideas if you need to 😊

Well done on today's story planning 😊

In tomorrow's lesson it will be time to write your stories
