

Adverbials (1)

Underline the adverbs or preposition phrases that modify the verb telling us when, how or why something happened or was done. The numbers tell you how many there are!

After a minute or so, Harry heard the clunks of Moody's wooden leg growing fainter in the corridor below. [2 preposition phrases]

Suddenly, he found himself sitting on a bench at the end of the room inside the basin. [1 adverb, 3 preposition phrases]

He had fallen through a page in an enchanted diary, right into somebody else's memory. [3 preposition phrases]

Karkaroff's eyes darted towards the door in the corner. The Dementors undoubtedly still stood waiting behind the door. [2 preposition phrases, 2 adverbs]

He was wearing a look of deep scepticism behind Dumbledore's back.
[1 preposition phrase]

Dumbledore drew his wand from the inside of his robes, and placed the tip into his own silvery hair, near his temple. [3 preposition phrases]

Naturally, it would have attracted your attention. [1 adverb]

Frequently, he placed his wand tip to his temple, removed another shining silver thought, and added it to the Pensieve. [1 adverb, 2 preposition phrases]

The attacks on them came after Voldemort's fall, just when everyone thought they were safe. [1 preposition phrase]

Unfortunately, the Longbottoms' evidence was, in view of their condition, none too reliable. [1 adverb, 1 preposition phrase]